

1ST ANNUAL PASSION FOR CHRIST CONFERENCE

WHAT'S SO GREAT ABOUT BEING CATHOLIC?

OCTOBER 27 | 1 - 5 PM

(MASS AT 4 PM IN THE CATHEDRAL)

REKINDLE YOUR FAITH AND SHARE IT WITH THOSE YOU LOVE!

FRAN RILEY has 45 years in radio and TV broadcasting/news and feature story reporting, and is a three time recipient of the Wilbur Award for excellence in religious reporting.

KEITH NESTER spent 22 years as a Protestant pastor before joining the Roman Catholic Church in 2017. He and his wife Estelle live in Cedar Rapids with their 3 children.

KATHY SCHLUTER received her training at the Theology of the Body Institute. She speaks and teaches on femininity, marriage, Theology of the Body and family life.

L. JOSEPH HEBERT is Professor of Political Science and Leadership Studies and Director of Pre-Law Studies at St. Ambrose University and President of Una Voce Quad Cities.

MAGGIE SCHOONMAKER is a Natural Fertility Educator and a homeschooling mother.

Let's get inspired and ignite passion and excitement into the Christian community, bring cradle Catholics home and bring new Catholics into the faith!

- Hear from local TV on-air personality, Fran Riley share his reversion story back to the faith.
- Allow Keith Nester, a former Protestant pastor for 22 years, to blow you away with his riveting answer to "What is so great about being Catholic?" and why he left his entire career to join the universal Church!
- Perpetual adoration available and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayer time.
- Question and answer panel from 5 different dynamic perspectives.

As Catholics, we have so many amazing gifts, rediscover those treasures at this retreat!
